

PRIVACY POLICY PRIVACY CHARTER AND COOKIES MANAGEMENT

The General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) came into force on 25th May 2018.

Within the framework of our missions of information and teleconsultation of health on the aesthetic surgery and aesthetic medicine, we do not manage personal data concerning you and do not exploit patient files on the site www.dravbenitez.com

Rest assured that dravbenitezwww.dravbenitez.com is continually evolving its processes and its privacy and compliance policy to ensure the protection of your personal data. These actions also enable us to meet the requirements of the (GDPR).

True to its values of respect, quality and progress, www.dravbenitez.com has always used your personal data in a respectful and responsible manner within the medical practice. Your personal data will not be passed on to third parties. Moreover, this information is used exclusively within the framework of the missions which are ours, namely, to offer you answers to your questions and complete and adapted solutions.

The treatment of confidential data includes Last and first name, phone numbers, e-mail addresses, the content of the messages as well as their exchanges between patients and Dra Virginia Benitez Roig.

This data is not stored in the site's database and is transferred exclusively to a secure Dra Virginia Benitez Roig, Web e-mail address, no third party can access it. They can be used monthly to establish statistics to record the number of messages received with the objective of organizing and managing the appointment schedule. These data are not used by the webmaster or other companies.

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION POLICY

In accordance with data protection, the website specializing in health registered in www.dravbenitez.com reiterates its commitment to the protection and respect of your privacy.

HOW WE COLLECT AND WHY:

This information is collected mainly via contact forms and is tracked via cookies placed on your various terminals during your consultations. For example, we collect and process your data to respond to your requests for information about surgery, treatment or non-surgical care. In a transparent and clear manner, the personal data you entrust to us allows us to process your requests for information, assistance and to provide relevant answers to your requests as and when you express them.